We've got your summer adventure sorted!

Every four years, over 200 young people from across Northern Ireland (and further afield) gather together to participate in a fun week of activities, trips, events, Bible teaching, worship and so much more.

Arura is everything you'd want a summer camp to be, with loads of different activities, trips & events; time to chill out; time to develop friendships; and time to explore who God is & how to follow Jesus in your life.

ARURA 2018 is open to any young person from the age of 10 (already in P6) and 17.

We NEED an extensive team of leaders and support workers to join us for the week to make this entire event possible! Arura cannot happen without YOUR help. The input provided by LEADERS is crucial to the Arura experience for the young people. SUPPORT WORKERS provide the backbone for all the activities and general running of the whole camp. YOUR commitment to Arura will be invaluable and VERY much appreciated!!

SATURDAY 28TH JULY – SATURDAY 4TH AUGUST 2018

This first Saturday will include setting up the school for camp, sorting camp beds, unloading lorries, team time, a volunteer's dinner, an evening of prayer and worship in advance of the young people arriving on the afternoon of Sunday 29 July.

ROYAL SCHOOL ARMAGH

Accommodation will be in school classrooms and dorm rooms.

£165

or £150 where there is more than one person coming from the same household.

SPORTS AND ACTIVITIES

There will be a range of different activities laid on, both on & off-site - some will be for pure fun, others will also help young people learn something new & then there will be the ones that only the brave will try! There will be plenty of exciting activities to suit all tastes.

TRIPS

There are many great places to see, so we will head out for a number of trips to make the most of what the 'Orchard County' has to offer!

TALKS

There will be a strong Christian emphasis to the week. Leaders will lead Bible-based discussions with small groups of young people and there will be a morning and evening session for everyone - these will include testimonies, worship, Bible lessons and challenges from our theme of 'Identity' for the week: "Anyone who belongs to Christ has become a new person. The old life is gone; a new life has begun!" A number of youth speakers will be responsible for different age groups.

THE GAP

It won't be all work! The GAP is the place on-site where you can grab a coffee or milkshake and chill out between activities and re-charge those batteries.

Leaders

Group Leaders play a crucial role at Arura. They are at the cutting edge of the camp and will have the most personal input into the young people's experience of Arura.

Leaders will be responsible for a small number (probably 5-6) of similar-aged boys or girls. This group will be made up of young people from different rallies, who are unlikely to all know each other.

Leaders will help the young people get to know each other, will participate in the activities with them - caring for them throughout the week. Leaders must have a personal faith in Jesus Christ and may be asked to facilitate daily Bible discussions in these groups.

Assistant Leaders

Assistant Leaders will support the leaders of small groups. An Assistant Leader will be at least 18.

Support workers

Workers are the backbone of Arura ensuring all things operate safely and smoothly. Workers will be given a number of daily tasks. While time with the young people is more limited, there will be many opportunities to participate in the life of the camp. The key areas of responsibilities will be:

Retail (aka The Gap)

The hub of Arura will be the Gap - the place on site where everyone can chill out between activities. We need workers to run the café, with its tuck shop, gift shop and bookshop.

Facilities

Site needs set-up & camp beds made up, chairs stacked, delivery lorries unloaded, minibuses driven, 24/7 site security, bins emptied, toilets cleaned, maintenance, AV support required, photo/video & office services, etc.

Catering

There will be over 400 hungry mouths to feed. Life in the kitchen may be hard but it is hugely rewarding and you don't need to be a 'Mary Berry' to apply!

Activities

Workers help make the fun, particularly when you are involved in the wide range of daily activities. You could be asked to referee a game, keep the score, run a stall or be part of an outing.

Arura simply cannot operate without committed workers to serve in these very practical ways.

What people said about the last Arura...

Being part of the Arura workers team was more than working together, it was like being part of a family.

Aaron (worker) / Newtownards

A fun and fantastic week to feed into the lives of young people from all over Northern Ireland! Getting involved is a decision you definitely won't regret, and I guarantee it will be the highlight of your year or maybe even your life.

Victoria (leader) / Belfast

Arura was a fantastic experience! It was the highlight of my summer as it created many memories I still remember even now; and as for my faith, it sparked the start of my true belief in God.

Aaron (camper)

Arura was an unreal camp and one of the best weeks of my life, the amount of new people you meet, the fellowship and the activities are all amazing, the best camp experience you could have.

Johnny (camper)

About Arura

Arura is an Australian Aboriginal word meaning 'gathering at camp'. Arura is an initiative of Rallies NI, a church-based youth organisation with four main aims - the spiritual, physical, social and educational development of every young person. It is a week-long camp for young people from across Northern Ireland and further afield which provides an opportunity for young people to get together and enjoy a great holiday in a Christian atmosphere.

History

The first ever Rally Arura was held in Australia in 1978. Northern Ireland hosted its first Arura in 1984 - so that will make this one the 9th Arura to be held here.

The last Arura was in 2014 in Bushmills when 200 young people enjoyed a week full of activities including coasteering, segways, secret church, deep sea fishing, Arura's Got Talent, Western night, the 'GAP' marquee complete with coffee bar, tuck and gift shops, bar-b-que on Portstewart Strand, as well as trips to Coleraine and Barry's Amusements in Portrush.

Extra items to note

Safety

The issue of safety has been taken seriously throughout the planning of Arura and will be of paramount importance during the week. There will be a high ratio of leaders to young people. There will be qualified first aiders on site and all activities are carried out under qualified supervision. Supervision may be by our own leaders, or leaders hired from a centre and accompanied by our own leaders. Leaders and Workers will not be expected to undertake any high-risk activity and if they do, they will do so under their own risk. Arura has a child protection and a health and safety policy and all leaders and support workers are expected to know it and to work under this policy.

Photography

Photographs and video will be taken during Arura for personal and promotional use. If you do not wish to be included in this material you must tick the box on the registration form to opt out, or notify the Arura office in writing by 30 June 2018.

Data Protection

Arura will hold your details on file but will not release the information to third parties, except any outdoor/adventure centres we engage where medical/special needs are required for the running of those activities.

What if I can't afford a place at Arura?

We want to make Arura as accessible to all children and young people including those from lower income families. We strive to keep the cost of our camps as low as possible yet in some cases this is still unachievable. If you are struggling to afford to pay some of or the entire fee please contact your leader or the Arura office.

Can I help send another child to camp?

In previous years, we have been encouraged by generous gifts from supporters of Arura. We would welcome donations to enable a place for everyone who wants to attend Arura. Any donations from £5 to the whole cost of our camp will make a real difference.
